4-H Days, Saturday, March 7th
Wellington High School
Pre-entries are due Feb 26th.

Project talks tells about your actual project experience.
Demonstrations show how to do something.
Illustrated talks tell how to do something.
Public speaking is a speech and should be on a topic of interest to the 4-H member.
Impromptu is practicing organizing and speaking without much time to prepare on a question you will draw out of the hat.

All musical numbers must have the measures numbered. Music downloaded from the internet must provide verification that it is not copyrighted.
Vocal can be a solo (perform 1 number) or group (performs 2 numbers) Original music must be given to the judge.
Instrumental can be a solo (perform 1 number) or group (performs 2 numbers). Original music must be given to the judge.
Piano must give the judge original music.
Dance may be an individual or group.

Fact sheets on the 4-H Day presentations are located at http://www.kansas4h.org/p.aspx?tabid=551

We can always use door monitors and remember this may count as volunteer service.

Door monitors announce the name and 4-H club of the next presentation, stand outside the door to see that no one comes in while a presentation is being done, then records the ribbon placing on the sheet outside the door.

Upcoming Area and State Events

4-H Scholarship Deadline - Kansas 4-H Scholarship applications must be in the State 4-H Office or postmarked no later than February 1, 2020.
